

CRDA Virtual Horse Show Regulations

Updated March 20, 2022

Article I. Rider Attire

Section 1.01 Clinic attire required

(a) Show attire optional

Section 1.02 Helmets required

Article II. Equipment

Section 2.01 All equipment must comply with USDF guidelines

(a) Examples:

(i) Ear bonnets allowed

(ii) Boots and wraps not allowed

Article III. Ring Requirements

Section 3.01 Must have eight letters for Intro, Training, and Eventing TOC

Section 3.02 Must have twelve letters for First level and up

(a) It is acceptable for letters to be handwritten on paper and taped to wall/fence

(b) Letters must be large enough to be visible on video

Section 3.03 Any size ring acceptable

Article IV. Video Requirements

Section 4.01 Editing and/or stopping the video is not allowed

You may not edit together clips from different videos

Section 4.02 You may film your test(s) as many times as you would like, but you may not edit pieces of different videos together. Don't worry if you go off course! You can try again.

Section 4.03 Film with your phone or camera horizontally, in landscape orientation

Section 4.04 At the beginning of the video announce the following:

Your name, your horse's name, & the test you are riding

Section 4.05 Audio must be on and able to be heard in the recording

- (a) Coaching is not allowed
- (b) Earbuds are not allowed
- (c) Music is not allowed unless submitting a Freestyle
- (d) Test reader is allowed

Section 4.06 Zooming is allowed, but not required

Section 4.07 You cannot use the same video for more than one show

Section 4.08 Videographer must stand at C

- (a) Cellphone videos are completely acceptable
- (b) Hiring a professional is discouraged, but not forbidden

Article V. General

Section 5.01 Each class will be pinned to sixth place in Junior, Adult Amateur, and Open

- (a) Results will be posted on the CRDA website
- (b) Ribbons and test sheets will be mailed or hand delivered to participants

Section 5.02 High point awards will be distributed for the 2022 CRDA Virtual Horse Show Series (shows in April, July, and October)

- (a) Champion and Reserve Champion ribbons will be awarded for:
Junior, Adult Amateur, Open, Intro, Training, First Level, Second Level & Above TOC, Eventing TOC, Above Leadline TOC, and Freestyle TOC, Vintage, and Masters divisions
- (b) Only participants who are current members of CRDA are eligible for high point awards
- (c) Only participants who comply with all the rules will be eligible for high point awards
- (d) Awards will be determined by the average of the three highest scores from both shows in a series per horse and rider combination

(e) Horse/rider combination must participate in at least 2 shows of a series to be eligible for high point awards

(f) The scores do not need to be from the same level for Junior, Adult Amateur, Open, Vintage, and Masters award

Section 5.04 Apple Knoll is offering ring time to complete tests should the rider choose to do so

(a) It is the rider's responsibility to contact to arrange a time slot and to pay Apple Knoll

(b) Contact Carol Mayo at jpcamayo@comcast.net or Carol Burkhart at cburkhart3636@gmail.com to arrange a day and time

Article VI. Submitting Entry Forms, Videos, and Payment

Section 6.01 Entry forms and payment will be submitted through a Google Form

(a) Entry fee is $25 for CRDA members and $30 for non-members

(b) New in 2022: A $2 office fee per horse/rider combination has been added for scoring tests.

(c) Entries and/or payment submitted after the closing date will incur a $10 late fee per test and will be accepted at the discretion of the Virtual Show Secretary

(d) Videos submitted after the closing date will also incur a $10 late fee per test and will be accepted at the discretion of the Virtual Show Secretary

(d) Payment options are PayPal or check and all the details on how to submit payment are on the entry form. PayPal is strongly preferred.

Section 6.02 Videos should be submitted to the following email:

crdavirtualshows@gmail.com (new email for 2022)

(a) Videos should be sent via a YouTube unlisted link

(b) Please title the videos with your full name, horse's name, and test you are riding